The Real Ludlow

The background of the page features a series of concentric, curved lines that sweep from the left side towards the right, creating a sense of depth and movement. The lines are dark and set against a light gray background.

The Real World

A stylized graphic of a globe is positioned in the lower half of the page. It is composed of several concentric, curved lines that sweep from the bottom left towards the top right, creating a sense of depth and curvature. The lines are dark gray and have a slight shadow effect, giving them a three-dimensional appearance. The globe is partially obscured by the large title text at the top.

You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself in any direction you choose.
You're on your own
And you know what you know.
You are the guy who'll decide where to go.
- Dr. Seuss

The Real...

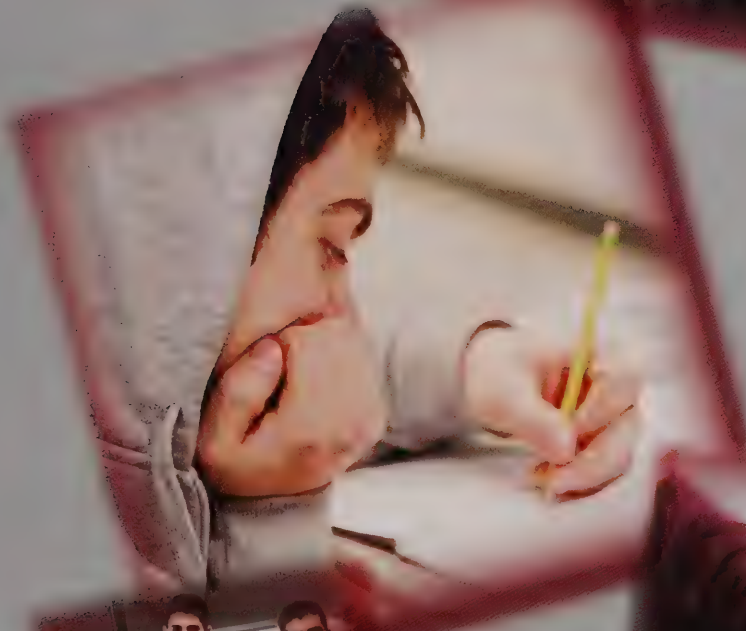

Personality

What is The Real Ludlow?

In "The Real Ludlow" everyone knows they will have their ups and downs, but it's how you pull through them that makes the "Real Ludlow" unique.

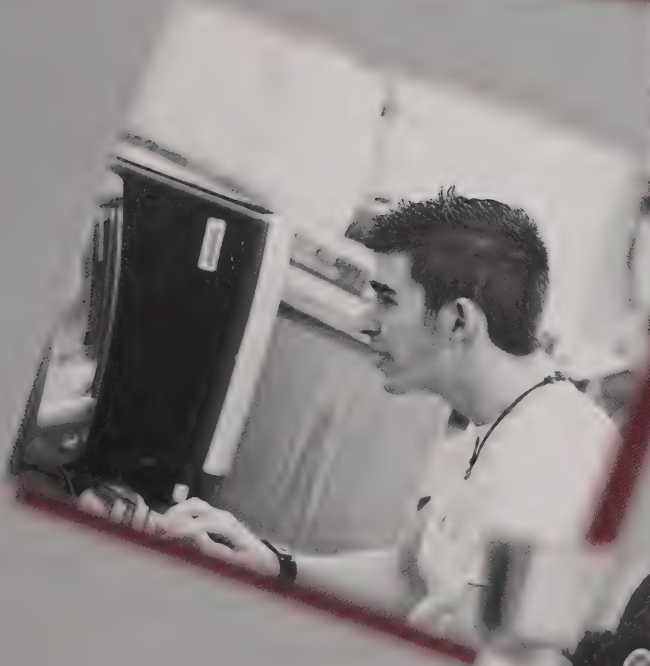

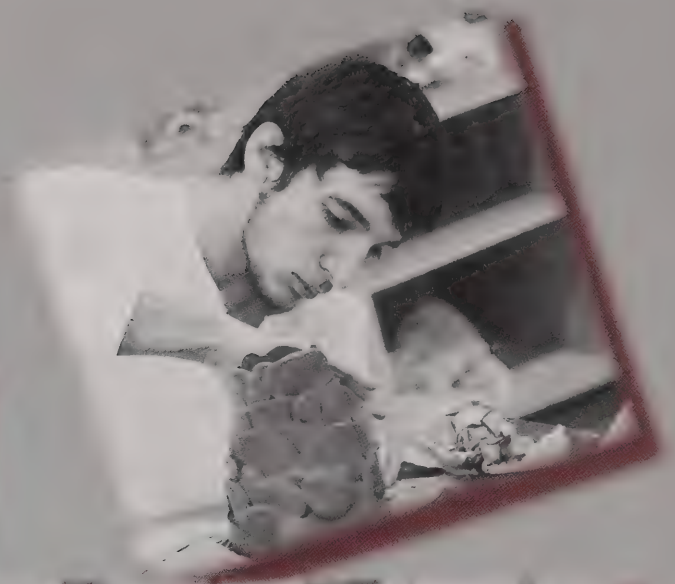

- Lisa Menard

What Is The Real Ludlow?

"The Real Ludlow" is not a curriculum we must follow or the material we cover in school, but it is all of the emotions and memories that we take with us and the experience we gained which will guide us for the rest of our lives."

- Ben Lasky

What is The Real Ludlow?

"No matter what problems we encounter,
we grab on to what we have close to us.
Our most valuable asset Ludlow gave to us is our friends."

-Mathew Lopata

What Is The Real Ludlow?

"The Real Ludlow" is where friends stick together and gossip is the key high school fever. We love it and we hate it but we're Ludlow High School seniors and we stick together."

-Nicole Provost

Game

cheerleading

Senior captains Brianna Arnold and Tanya Lang lead the squad through it's first season as a co-ed team and what a year it was! The Varsity Cheerleading squad's performance at the annual Chicopee Invitational was the best ever. With the most teams the co-ed division has ever seen, Ludlow manged a second place finish as a rookie co-ed squad. The team looks ahead to new faces and new coaches to continue the winning tradition started this year.

football

The Ludlow High School Varsity football team, led by a large senior contingent, had a really great season. Senior standouts Joe Underkofler, Seth Barker, Anthony Medieros, Greg Belanger and several others led the lions with wins against Commerce, Putnam, Cathedral, Greenfield and West Springfield. On a cold Thanksgiving Day, the Lions played in the annual challenge against Palmer and gained another win. The Lions bid a fond farewell to longtime Coach Carl Eriksberg. Next season the Lions hope to continue their winning tradition led by players like Nick Vogel and Jason Chenier .

girls soccer

The real word to describe this year's team is winners. Both on and off the field, the Lady Lions demonstrate class and dedication to whatever they undertake. Winning the Western Mass. Championship title looked easy with players like seniors Sue Silva, Ali Pease and Alyssa Parker on the field.

Sophomore standouts Caitlin Alves and Kaylee Miller were an integral part of the scoring machine that made it all the way to the State Championship. Upcoming juniors Cat Pangiarella, Amber Kielbasa, Kim McGregor, Lauren Fransico and Carrie Robataille will continue this years winning tradititon and bring more championship banners home for the Lady Lions.

boys soccer

Senior captains, Mike Adam, Joey Kapinos, Jayme Kapinos, Kevin Pereira, and Ben Pellegrini led the boys further than anyone expected, trampling their way to becoming the Smith Division Champions and making it all the way to Western Mass tournament. Captains were "assisted" by seniors Mike Czupryna, Jake Alves, Zac Zina, Sean Acculair, Steve Alves and Alex Stebbins with a great number of really outstanding throw-ins, corner kicks and headers. Hopefully, down the road, the boys can show their real game and win Western Mass relying on juniors like Kyle Borowiec, sophomores like Derek Simpson and freshmen like Michael Jordan.

girls x-country

The girls cross-country got off to a running start with Sophomore Ashley Ferreira leading the way. The girls held their title as Undefeated League Champs. The girls worked hard all season with captains Katie Slepecki and Stephanie Gomes running them into the ground at every practice. "This has been the first year all girls have gotten under thirty minutes, and I'm very proud," says head Coach Brian Walsh. Only two seniors will be running off to college, leaving ground for incoming freshmen to cover behind the leadership of veteran runners like Andrea Jorge, Cindy Archambeau, Leah Visconti and Caitlin Stack.

This year's team had a great season, beating Amherst to take the number one spot in Western Massachusetts. The team was led by senior captains, Dave Johnson and Kevin Johnson. After an undefeated season, the team went on to the State Championships where they placed fourth overall. They were able to achieve this placement with the help of seniors Brian Fuller and Peter Vomero. The team fought through every meet like a true band of brothers and this success will surely be inherited by the next generation of harriers.

girls volleyball

The Ludlow Lady Lions Volleyball team's record doesn't being to tell the real story. Over the course of a rocky season, the girls came together and demonstrated high levels of intensity and teamwork. The leadership of Senior Co-captains Aly Terlik and Lindsey LaCoille was unparalleled. Seniors Melanie Costa, Lauren Hanguasky, Nicole Provost, Stephanie Davies and Alyssa Puzzo gave the team the edge they needed when it mattered most. The team is looking forward to their next season where young talents like Eileen Barrett, Ashley Provost and Vanessa Gomes will bring victory back to the Ludlow High School volleyball court.

girls swimming

The 2006-2007 girls swim team continued to grow and improve. Ludlow has a great thing going. They have lots of depth with some very good up-and-comers. Nina Perez, Emalee Furtak, Cindy Archambeau and Ashley LaBier participated in the Western Mass meet. Breonna Harrington took 10th place in the 100 yard free style. After three years of swimming as an independant school, Ludlow will join a division in the 2007-2008 season.

Baseball took some real steps forward this year and turned in a winning season. Seniors Joe Underkofler, Koz, Bull, Wes Thompson and Eric Drewniak used their experience and skills to set a real example for under-class hopefuls like Steve Bates, Ryan LaFromboise, Jake Flynn and Sean Ragnier. Coach Fanning hopes to continue the winning tradition next year and in the years to come.

girls tennis

This year's girls' tennis team changed up the old scores and hit some real ace slices over the net during the league season. New talented freshmen additions helped the team break its previous losing streak. With strengths in their ability to connect with each other and their determination to win, the girls certainly saw each match as a new challenge they looked forward to overcoming. The team had a wonderful time and enjoyed being coached by Mr. John Carlin.

Senior Sue Silva was a great asset to the team.

Coach will be counting on underclassmen like freshman Christina Stevens to step up next year.

boys tennis

The boys began this season as great athletes who wanted to win and had the will to do so. Led by seniors Jayme and Joey Kapinos, Mike Adam and Josh Breault, this group of guys faced every match with fiery enthusiasm and a strong competitive attitude. The boys tennis team made the playoffs and hope to continue this streak in the future with rising stars James Creamer and Sean and Travis Whitehouse. The team had a wonderful time and enjoyed being coached by English teacher Christopher Rea.

boys track & field

As four time league champs, the 2007 boys track and field team had a lot to look forward to. Led by captains Ben Pellegrini, Marc Suares, David Johnson and Peter Vomero the team dominated each of their opponents clinching the league title once again. With a team of almost 70 members, and 24 competitors in the WMass Championship, Coach Gauvin is hopeful for continued success in the future.

girls track & field

Girls track was really successful once again, winning its league for the third time since 2004. Ludlow's 6-0 record came with many of the girls qualifying for PVIAC. At Western Mass, the girls took first place scoring 91 points compared to East Longmeadow's 71 and Agawam's 68.

The team's success was driven by good attitudes, hard work and team spirit. Lead by seniors like Nina Perez, Alyssa Puzzo, Alyssa Parker and Ali Pease the girls were always cheering on teammates getting them all the way to the Western Mass title. Coach Walsh will be looking to several girls like Carrie Robitaille, Steph Gomes, Gabrielle Leal and other standouts to make it to clinch the Western Mass title again next season.

boys volleyball

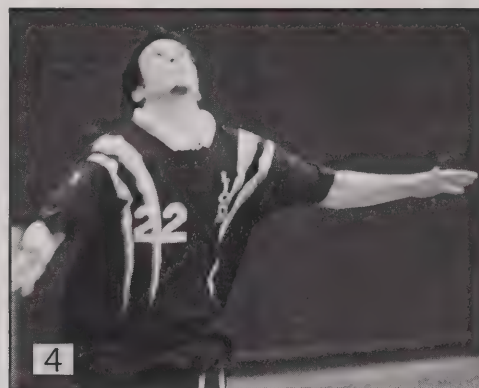

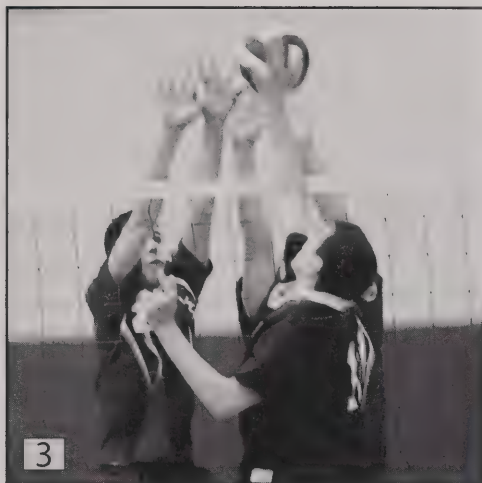

The boys varsity volleyball team returned from a great season in 2006 to continue and maybe further their success in 2007. The boys worked hard in practice and gave everything they had. Under the experienced coaching of Mr. Fred Glanville they struggled against rivals like Minnechaug and Agawam during the season but came out on top of Minnechaug in the Quarter Finals. Coach looks to continue their winning tradition in the future with greats like Matt Pina and Dave D'Angelo.

school spirit

School spirit reached new heights this year with the annual Fall Pep Rally and the return of the popular Powder Puff Football Game. Cheering students filled the stands at the Pep Rally to cheer on their favorite fall athletes and cheerleaders.

The Class of 2007 brought the Powder Puff Football Game to LHS. The games were exciting and hard-fought and this year victories went to the Junior and Freshmen classes.

International talent show

This year's talent show, sponsored by the Spanish club had a real international feel. With many singing talents like Amanda Grelha (right), Nicole Crevier and Brianna Arnold the crowd was held spellbound. Not to be outdone, male instrumentalists like Evan Chandonett and Mat Bailargeon stepped up and turned in performances that can only be classified as molto bene! Singer/songwriter Josh Dusza accompanied by his brother Nick on drums and Brian McCarthy of guitar, even went for far as to compose an entire song en espanol for the occasion. All and all it was another fantastic show!

Portuguese Quilt

With the unveiling of the Portuguese Quilt this year, the artistic talents of the 2006 Portuguese classes really shined. The quilt is a colorful combination of individually created blocks representing all of the different aspects of Portuguese history and culture.

Sao Martinho was celebrated with real style this year thanks to the culinary efforts of the 2006-2007 Portuguese classes. The food and company were amazing and brought broad smiles to the faces of those in attendance. Obrigado!

coffee house

The Paw literary magazine magically transformed the LHS cafeteria into a real coffee house performance space. Poetry readings, dramatics scenes and acoustic musical performances exceeded the expectations of the standing-room-only crowd. A major highlight of the evening was definitely Mr. Rea's musical performance. An outstanding rendition of a scene from Romeo & Juliet by seniors Veronika LaRoque and Ben Pellegrini and junior Molly O'Brien was also on tap. Based on the success of this year's event, LHS can look forward to many more Coffee House evenings for years to come.

Bloodmobile

Student Council held its annual Blood Drive this March. Always a huge success, this year's event had a bit of a setback. An hour or so into blood giving, students were forced to stay in their classrooms for a code gray. Overall the event was a success, after code gray students still came down to the back gym to donate.

Volleyball Marathon

Each year students look forward to the Volleyball Marathon sponsored by Student Council. This year, team packets 'sold out' faster than ever, some students signed up for the waiting list. From Friday night until 7 o'clock Saturday morning, students played volleyball almost nonstop. After two years of making the finals but being defeated, Thug Life finally came out on top and took home several prizes.

Romeo & Juliet

The drama club began the year getting ready for their modern version of Shakespeare's Romeo & Juliet. Set in Ludlow, the play centered around the feud between the Montagues of Ludlow High and the Capulets of Cathedral. The show starred Ben Pellegrini as Romeo, Angelina Cavallini as Juliet, Colin Vigneault as Mercutio, and Molly O'Brien as the Nurse. It was directed by Jen Bramucci. For the first time, LHS Drama took part in the MHSDG Festival. They brought an abbreviated version of Romeo & Juliet to the preliminary round, help at the Bromfield School in Harvard, MA.

A Night of One-Act Plays

The Drama club closed the year by hosting their first ever Night of One-Act Plays. Featuring When Shakespeare's Ladies Meet, A Great Deal of Ruckus Concerning Zilch and Bang, Bang You're Dead. The evening was a huge success! At the end of the year, the drama club also got a new name: The Drama Fiefdom at Ludlow!

Aladdin

"A Whole New World."

That's what it felt like to Mrs. Cheryl Noble when she became the new Musical Theater teacher here at LHS.

After many "dramatic" rehearsals, the hard work of the cast and crew paid off when the doors opened for the show, starring James Starr as Aladdin, Amanda Grelha as Jasmine, Mat Baillargeon as the Genie. The extravagantly decorated set and authentic costumes transported the audience to the streets of Agrabah.

the rock show

On February 18th, Ludlow High School rocked to the sounds of Perfect Crime and Hobgoblin, who claims that they have nothing going for them but their sense of humor, opened the show. The crowd enjoyed the mix of music and humor presented by Josh and Nick Dusza and Brian McCarthy. After a brief intermission, Perfect Crime took the stage to the delight of their headbangin' fans.

Lead guitarist Justin Martins made the fans believe that Slash and Page were in the building and Eric Martins on drums was incendiary. Lead singer Joe Martins showed polish and poise when the band played their original tracks. Charles Martins, Joe Metcalfe and Jim Tiraboschi helped put the performance over the top. Everyone who attended the show had a great time and is looking forward to next year's show!

The place to find real entertainment this year was at the Senior Show. The class of 2007 Celebrated Good Times and took the audience along for the ride. Emcees Eric Kozlik, Catarina Martins, Miki Colson, Jimmy Merkel and Brandee Paroline kept the show moving with their witty skits and rapport. Senior Juggler, Eric Drewniak, and soloist Amanda Grelha held the crowd spellbound. The Girls' Number took a fun trip down Memory Lane to the 80s and the Boys' Number, "Men in Black," was truly memorable. Audience favorites would have to be the Phil Dalesio tribute, Dopplegangers, and The Cheerleaders. This year's show was the perfect combination of talent and Celebration.

The Real...

Goodbye

"From Here On" By Eric Kozlik

We feel the cool, impatient breeze
Upon our hopeful faces
Reminding us of sights unseen
And far-off, distant places
We've come so far, and yet it seems
A long road lies awaiting
And even though the way is hard
There's no use hesitating.
The sun shines bright against the clouds
Of Glory that we're trailing
The tide is high, the time is now,
Away we must be sailing
A distant point of shining hope
Determines our direction
For in our beating hearts resides
A similar reflection.
And up till now we've been content
To dream of roads not taken
But with that bright, eternal spark,
From dreams we have awakened
We'll fight to win the twilight battle
We'll be the future's soldiers
A song is always in our hearts
The sun upon our shoulders
The wind is always at our backs
Our eyes upon the heavens
And, truth be told, you cannot beat
The Class of Two Thousand and Seven.

senior farewell

It was "a beautiful day" on May 31st when the class of 2008 bid a fond farewell to the class of 2007. Everyone agreed this year's skits were well done and Mr. Augusto's direction for the end of the candle ceremony was especially touching. The class gift of a new lion mascot will help to boost school spirit for years to come. The final farewell came with the passing of the Peace Pipe from 2007's president Mathew Lopata to 2008's president Maggie Garncarz.

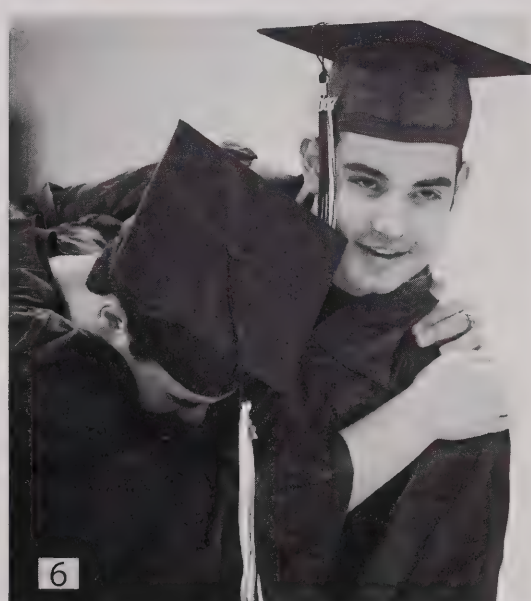

May 31st

senior trip

The senior trip was no big mystery this year because advisors Mrs. Olmo, Miss Rapa and Mrs. Blair took the Class of 2007 white water rafting on the Hudson River in upstate New York. The weather and scenery were beautiful as the rafters donned their wetsuits, jumped into their rafts and hit the river. Only one boat capsized and Tim Royce maintains that it wasn't his fault! Many memories were made and the class of 2007 will be telling these stories at all their reunions to come.

senior banquet

This year's senior advisors chose Adelfia's in South Hadley for the class of 2007's banquet. The intimate atmosphere was the perfect setting for the class' final dinner and dance together. One of the highlights of the evening had to be the guest hypnotist who had his subjects voguing, crying, laughing and dancing with their shoes. We were really lucky to catch many of these moments on film for posterity's enjoyment!

May 31st

1. The crowd erupts with laughter as they watch the antics of the hypnotized subjects.
2. Steve Alves strikes a pose.
3. Senior girls "cheese" for a memorable photo.
4. Eurico Ferreira and Jessica Bashaw help themselves to the food provided by Adelfia's.

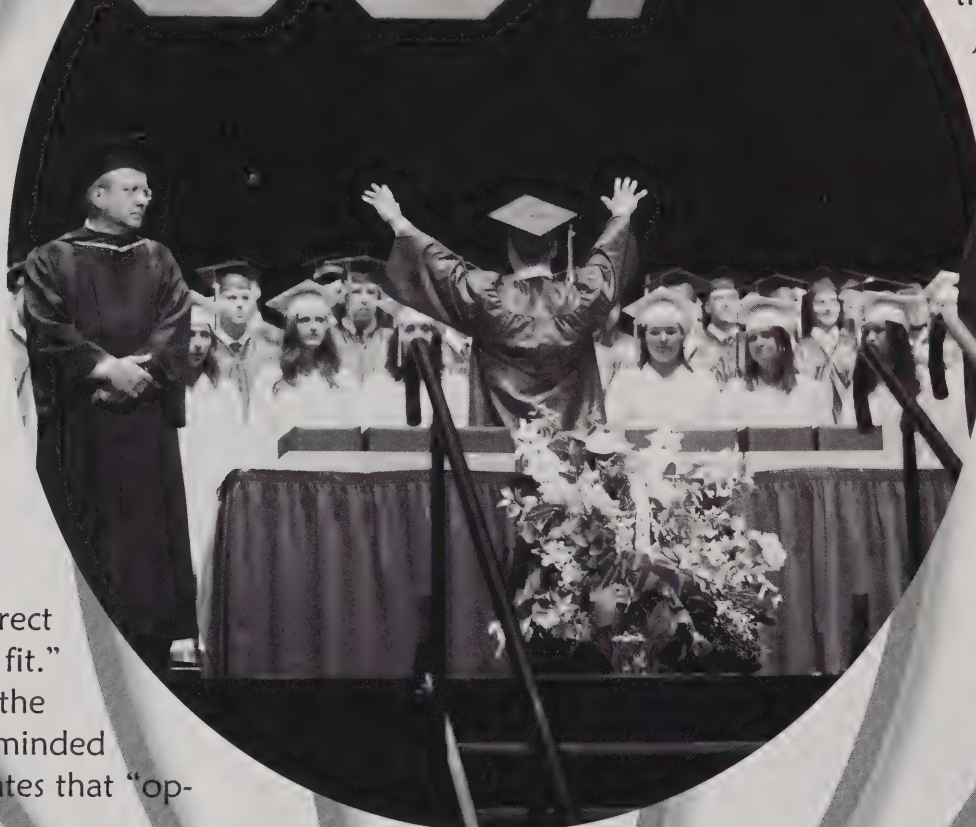

5. Danielle Hayes will always remember her last banquet.
6. A hypnotized Marc Soares and Josh Dobecki give each other a shoulder to cry on during the "sad movie."
7. A hypnotized Eric Kozlik listens to the tunes from his shoe.
8. The hypnotist instructs Jake Alves to pick up a million dollar bill off the floor.
9. Joe Underkofler expresses to Brett Williamson how funny he was under hypnosis.

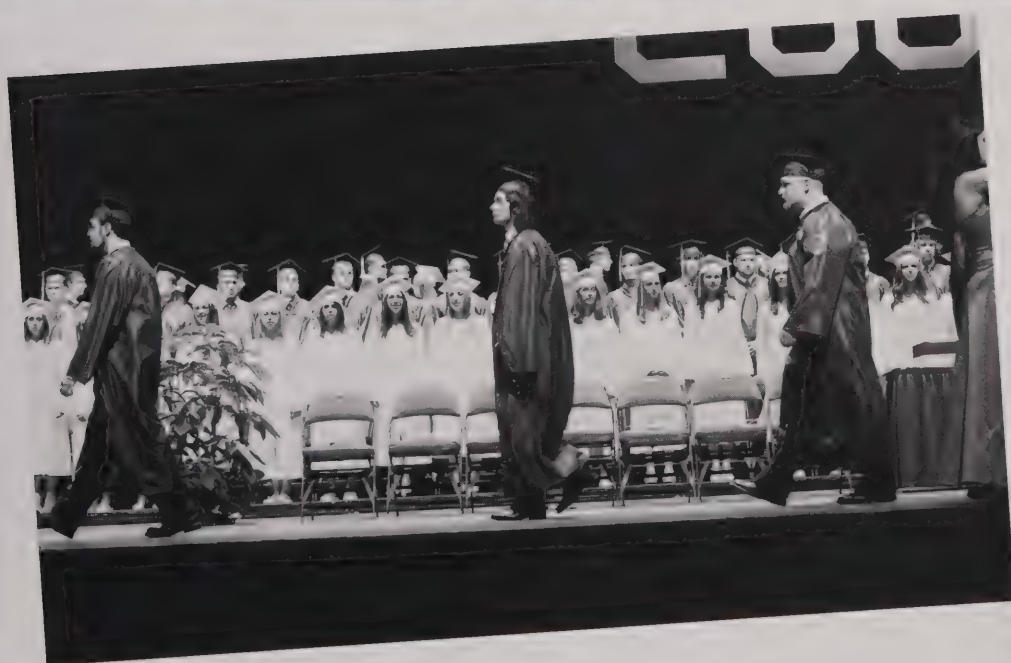

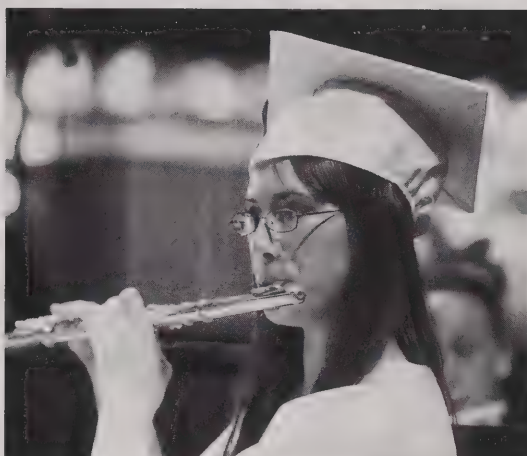

Graduation

Ludlow High School graduates donned their maroon and white to receive their diplomas from superintendent Dr. Kane on June 1, 2007. Principal Gordon Smith praised the class of 2007's local and international charitable efforts. Class Valedictorian Kevin Johnson reminded his class to "dream big" and "assume leadership and direct change as we see fit." Mathew Lopata, the class president reminded his fellow classmates that "optimism is key" and the importance of living life with their heads up and a smile on their faces. Family, friends and faculty added their voices to the jubilant cheers of this year's graduates as they took their first steps out into editor's farewell

Well, well, well, it sure has been an adventure. This crazy, rocky year full of several ups and many downs sure has been fun. Despite all the stress I've met along the way I had fun.

My first 'thank you' goes to Leigh-Ann Malke, 2006's editor. I've known her for years mainly through dance but she was always someone I looked up to. I never thought I'd be the Editor of my yearbook when I was already the class Secretary and juggling so many other jobs. I also never thought I'd spend half my afternoons of my senior year in Mrs. Courtney's room at a computer. My first thought when I joined yearbook was if Leigh-Ann did it, I should too! It sounds a little silly when I think back but it's the truth so... Thank You Leigh!

Now to Mr. Nevin Xavier. I like to think of him as my yearbook slave some- times. For the rest of the time he's like my little brother. I could have never EVER been editor of this book without his experience. He was always willing (with a few friendly arguments here and there) to help and fix whatever it was that I messed up. I feel like I don't have to wish you the best with your book, you're fantastic, we all know it'll be phenomenal. And I'll be perfectly fine with it being better than mine. I do however want to wish you con- tinued success in the future. You're a great guy with quite the personality and after yearbook camp and musical theater I'm glad to have worked so closely with you. Best Wishes.

To my advisors: the computer savvy Mrs. Linda Courtney and the wordy Miss Michelle Fontana- THANK YOU! Whenever a picture was too small for my page Mrs. Courtney was there for the rescue. And whenever I had a brain fart and couldn't find the right words to write Miss Fontana's words. You have both been tremendous helpers especially on top of my procrastination. But aside from thank you, there is one thing I've been waiting to leave you two with: Have fun with Nevin!

To all the 'year bookers' that dropped by to give me whatever minutes they had to spare in their busy lives, I wish I could have given you better or "funner" things to do but this program was crazy, I still feel like I don't know how to use it. Your stories, captions and editing were very important parts of the book that I would have drowned in if you weren't around. So to Christy, Jaime, Kristine, Jerad and Courtney- thank you!

Andrea and Joe I really hope you both stick around - they'll need you both! Thank you for all your hard work this year. I know you're both busy students.

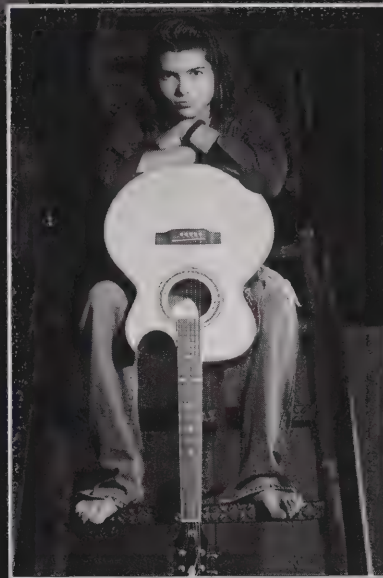

To Steinmetz Photography, thank you, your photos were complimented by my Herff Jones Representative's time and time again. Your work is great and its been a memorable experience working with you all.

And finally, to the Class of 2007, as your Class Secretary I'll be planning your reunions- be there. You are all individuals. I wish you all the success in the world. Remember that optimism is the key and always remember that ducks fly together- Quack!

Love Always,
Brianna Arnold

Looking Back...

In Memory Of Jennifer MacDonald

20

Looking back just like it was yesterday,
Flipping through those pages of the faded memories I've spent,
Never forgetting them like an unforgettable story.
Having that one thing in your life, that one thought in your world
That would never disappear before my eyes;
Just as it appeared, I look now and it has vanished.
Taken by bright, beautiful, graceful winged figures
To a world unknown, unable to be seen nor reached.
Dealing with something so unrealistic,
So unbelievable that could ever happen
Suddenly seeing scars, but it's not how it used to be.
Feeling confused, lonely, sad, and full of anger bundled inside.
Feeling like that one thing in my life left me without saying goodbye.
Just leaving me here and not knowing what to do,
Losing touch with the real me and my faith it seems
The only explanation would be that God only took
That one thing in my life away because he picks
Only the most beautiful flowers first.

Of all the friends I've ever met,
You're the one I won't forget.
And if I die before you do
I'll go to heaven and wait for you.
I'll give the angels back their wings
And risk the loss of everything
Just to prove my friendship is true.
I'm thankful to have a friend like you.

Although I left the walls of Ludlow High School earlier than the rest of you, there's one thing I never left behind; that was all of you: the Class of 2007. I am proud to say that I walked into that high school on that cold September day in 2003 with all of you. Every single person in the Class of '07 is an amazing individual who will go very far in life. Unfortunately, I won't be able to walk with the Class of '07; however, I will definitely be there cheering all of you on. I know each and everyone of you have worked hard for this and you all deserve it. Congratulations to all of you and Best of Luck in the future!

Don't ever try to understand everything-some things will just never make sense.
Don't ever be reluctant to show your feelings-when you're happy, give into it!
When you're not, live with it.
Don't ever be afraid to try to make things better-you might be surprised at the results.
Don't ever take the weight of the world
on your shoulders.
Don't ever feel threatened by the future-
take life one day at a time.
Don't ever feel guilty about the past-

H HERFF JONES®

WORLD

1. President George W. Bush announced in January 2007 that he would send an additional 21,500 troops to Iraq to improve security and assist with U.S. efforts there. Bush vowed that the Americans killed would not have died in vain. The 2008 budget projection for fighting in Iraq and Afghanistan and repairing and replacing equipment lost in combat was an estimated $141.7 billion. American death tolls in Iraq eclipsed 3,150 and the official total for Americans wounded surpassed 23,500.

China successfully used a missile carrying a "kill vehicle" to blast an old Chinese weather satellite from its orbit 537 miles above Earth. U.S. government officials said that the test could undermine relations with the West and pose a threat to satellites important to the U.S. military.

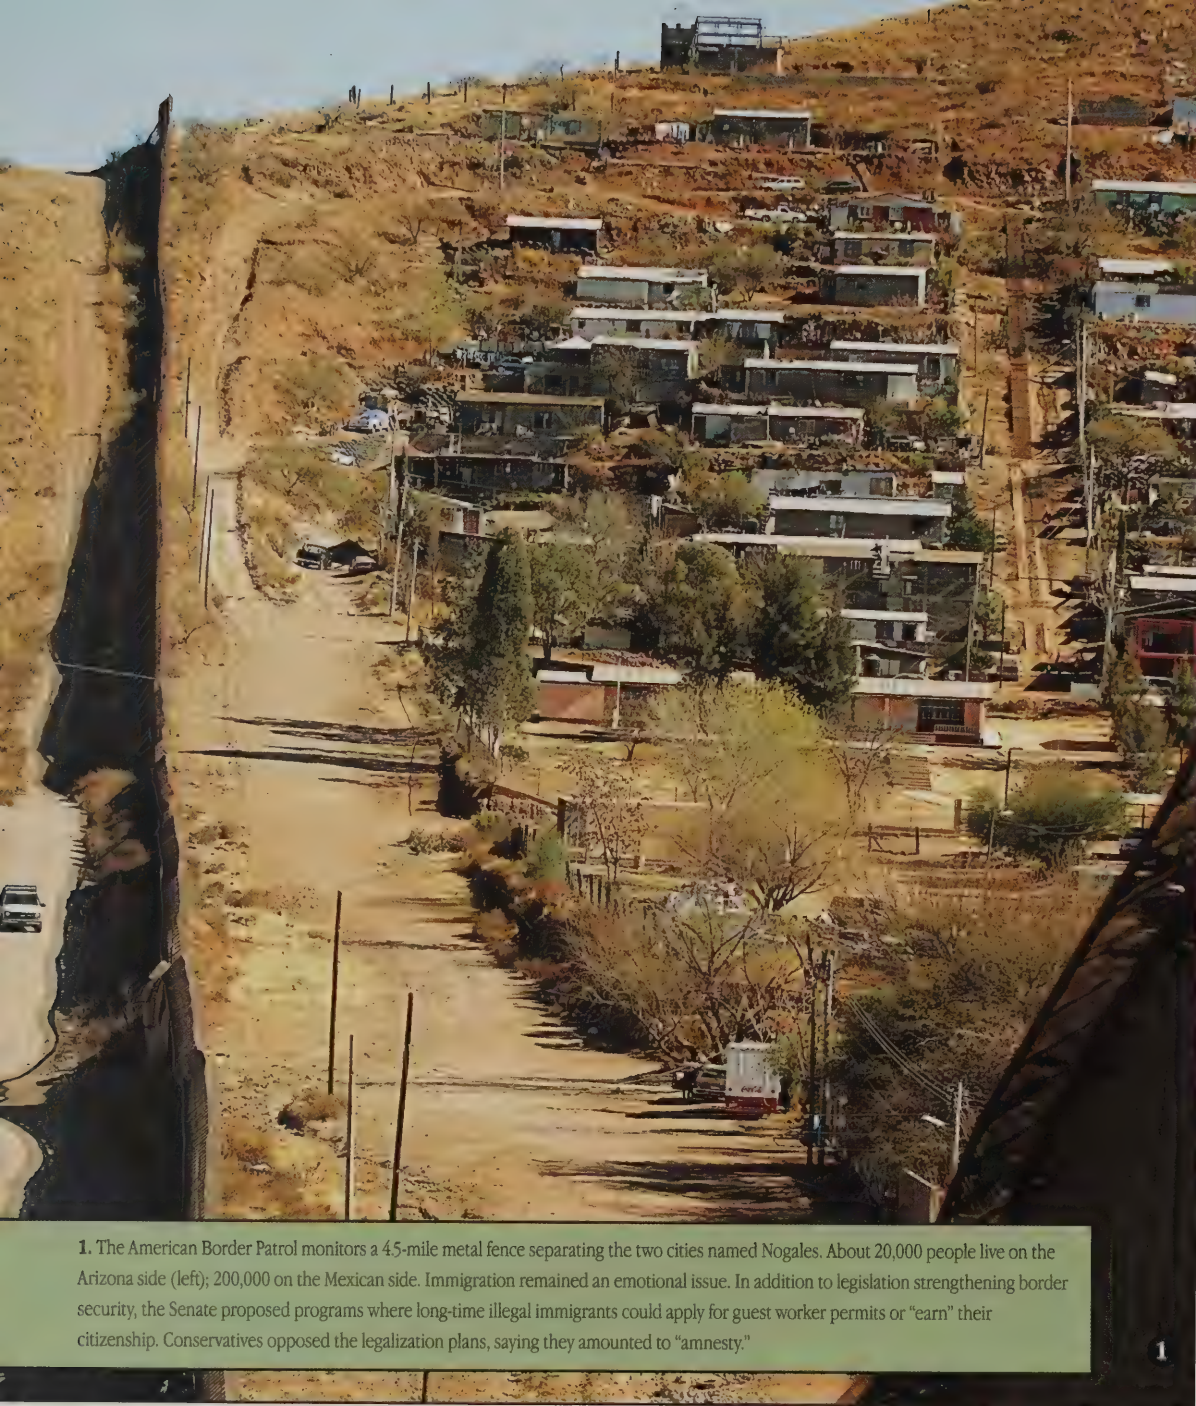

A team of French doctors removed a cyst from a man's arm in a 10-minute mid-air surgery used as a feasibility study for possible surgery in space. The five-doctor team operated in near zero-gravity conditions produced by an Airbus 380 looping to create interval dives simulating weightlessness.

A Kansas teenager racked up perfect scores on the ACT and SAT. Jakub Voboril of Wichita got a 36 on the ACT on his third try. He received his SAT results shortly after the perfect ACT score: a perfect score of 2400. He did check out test prep books, but his advice: "Pay attention in class."

The baiji, a rare, nearly blind white river dolphin, is effectively extinct. Researchers say pollution and overfishing in the Yangtze River caused the species' demise. Plus, ship traffic there confused the sonar the baiji used to find food.

Americans won the Nobel prizes for physics (John Mather of NASA Goddard Flight Center and George Smoot from UC Berkeley with their satellite program that backed up the Big Bang theory), chemistry (Roger D. Kornberg from Stanford School of Medicine who studied how cells take information from genes to produce proteins), medicine (Andrew Z. Fire from MIT and Craig C. Mello from Harvard who discovered a way to turn off specific genes) and economics (Edmund S. Phelps from Columbia University for examining the trade-offs between inflation and its effects on unemployment).

Houston truck driver Tyrone Williams was spared the death penalty and sentenced to life in prison for his role in the nation's deadliest smuggling attempt - a journey that ended in the deaths of 19 illegal immigrants crammed into a sweltering tractor-trailer, after Williams abandoned them and the rig.

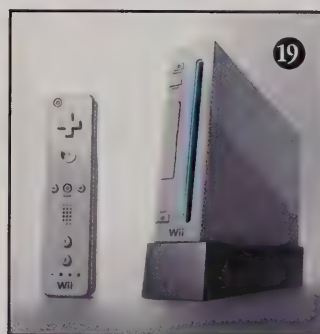

1. The American Border Patrol monitors a 4.5-mile metal fence separating the two cities named Nogales. About 20,000 people live on the Arizona side (left); 200,000 on the Mexican side. Immigration remained an emotional issue. In addition to legislation strengthening border security, the Senate proposed programs where long-time illegal immigrants could apply for guest worker permits or "earn" their citizenship. Conservatives opposed the legalization plans, saying they amounted to "amnesty."

17. President Bush signed legislation in October authorizing tough interrogation of terror suspects and trials before military commissions. While Bush claimed that he knew the bill would save lives, the ACLU called it "one of the worst civil liberties measures ever enacted."

18. A 6.3 magnitude earthquake struck Indonesia on May 27, 2006, killing more than 5,800 and injuring 36,299. Thousands of aftershocks followed and hundreds of thousands were left homeless in central Java.
